

Know Your Options as a Real Estate Consumer

Considering a real estate transaction? One of the first decisions you will need to make is whether you should work with a licensed real estate professional who will represent you. Take a moment to read this important consumer protection information from the Real Estate Council of BC.

This form explains the special legal duties that real estate professionals owe to their clients. It will help you choose whether you want to be:

- a CLIENT of a real estate professional, who will represent you in the transaction, or
- an UNREPRESENTED PARTY with no real estate professional representing you.

Why are you getting this form?

A real estate professional is required to give you this form before working with you, and must explain it to you.

The Benefits of Representation

Many people choose to have a real estate professional represent them in real estate transactions to help them make informed decisions. As a client, you'll benefit from:

Expert advice

In BC, licensed real estate professionals receive specialized training.

Protection

Real estate professionals in BC are licensed under the Real Estate Services Act. It is legislation designed to protect the rights of consumers.

Oversight

The Real Estate Council of BC works to ensure real estate professionals are competent and knowledgeable. If you have a concern about a real estate professional, you can file a complaint by visiting our website at www.recbc.ca. We can investigate and discipline individuals for professional misconduct.

What to Expect as a Client

When you become the client of a real estate professional, they owe you special legal duties as your agent:

- ☒ Loyalty: they must put your interests first, even before their own.
- ☒ Avoid conflicts of interest: they must avoid any situation that would affect their duty to act in your best interests.
- ☒ Fully disclose relevant information: they must give you all the facts they know that might affect your decisions.
- ☒ Protect your confidentiality: they must not reveal your private information without your permission, such as:
 - your reasons for buying/selling/leasing/renting
 - the minimum/maximum price you are seeking
 - any preferred terms and conditions you may want to include in a contract.

What to Expect as an Unrepresented Party

If you choose not to have a real estate professional represent you, you are an unrepresented party. You are not entitled to the special legal duties a client receives.

- ☒ No loyalty: the real estate professionals involved in the transaction are representing clients with competing interests to yours. They must be loyal to their clients, not you.
- ☒ No duty to avoid conflicts: no real estate professional is acting in your interests.
- ☒ No full disclosure: the real estate professionals involved in the transaction do not have a duty to give you all relevant information.
- ☒ No confidentiality: the real estate professionals involved in the transaction must share any information you tell them with their client.

Your Options as a Client

In BC, real estate professionals provide their services through licensed companies known as brokerages. If you decide to become the client of a real estate professional, you will sign an agreement with their brokerage. Depending on how the brokerage operates, you will be represented as a client in one of two ways:

Designated Agency

Your real estate professional will represent you as a "designated agent". Only your designated agent will owe you the legal duties explained above. Your agent must not share your confidential information with others at the brokerage without your permission.

Brokerage Agency

You will be represented by all the real estate professionals at the brokerage. They will all owe you the legal duties explained above. They must all protect your confidential information.

Either way, as a client of a licensed real estate professional you will benefit from expert advice, oversight and protection.

This is a disclosure made in compliance with section 5-10 of the Rules under the Real Estate Services Act.

11. THE SELLER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT:

- A. The information relating to the Property may be disclosed to persons interested in the Property including prospective buyers, agents of prospective buyers, appraisers, financial institutions, governments and governmental departments and agencies;
- B. The duties set out in Real Estate Services Act Rules 3-3 and 3-4 apply only to the Designated Agent and do not apply to any other licensees of the Listing Brokerage who represent buyers or other sellers and, subject to Clauses 9B, 9C and 9D, do not apply to the Listing Brokerage.
- C. The Listing Brokerage or the Designated Agent may provide trading services to, have agency relationships with or be engaged by other sellers, or have agency relationships with or be engaged by buyers, unless doing so would constitute a dual agency that is not permitted by Part 5 of the Real Estate Services Act Rules;
- D. In the case that the provision of trading services to the Seller contemplated hereby and the provision of trading services to a buyer or another seller constitutes or becomes a dual agency that is not permitted by Part 5 of the Real Estate Services Act Rules, the Seller acknowledges and agrees that the Listing Brokerage and the Designated Agent, as applicable, must comply with Real Estate Services Act Rule 5-18 and may be required to cease providing certain trading services to the Seller;
- E. Despite Real Estate Services Act Rule 3-3(f), the Listing Brokerage and the Designated Agent will not be required to disclose to the Seller confidential information obtained through any agency relationship; and
- F. A Seller, who is a non-resident of Canada, must comply with the Income Tax Act of Canada before the sale of the Seller's property can be completed.

12. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST:

- A. If the Designated Agent's provision of trading services to the Seller in respect of the Property and a buyer with whom the Designated Agent has an agency relationship would constitute a dual agency that is not permitted by Part 5 of the Real Estate Services Act Rules, the Designated Agent may request consent from the Seller and such buyer to continue to represent either the Seller or such buyer in respect of the Property. In such case, the Designated Agent will present such buyer and the Seller with a written agreement in compliance with section 5-18 of the Real Estate Services Act Rules (the "Consent Agreement"). Notwithstanding anything else in this Contract, if the Seller and such buyer consent to the Designated Agent continuing to act for one of them in respect of the Property and they execute the Consent Agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:
 - (i) if the Designated Agent ceases to act as agent of such buyer in respect of the Property, the Seller acknowledges and agrees that the Designated Agent may continue to act as agent for such buyer in respect of property other than the Property;
 - (ii) if the Designated Agent ceases to act as agent of the Seller in respect of the Property, subject to Part 5 of the Real Estate Services Act Rules, the Listing Brokerage may designate another licensee of the Listing Brokerage to act as the Designated Agent of the Seller hereunder or if the Listing Brokerage is unable to or does not designate another licensee of the Listing Brokerage, the Listing Brokerage may refer the Seller to another brokerage for representation in respect of the Property; provided that, the Seller will not be obligated to accept such referral; and
 - (iii) if the Designated Agent ceases to act as the agent of the Seller in respect of the Property, the Seller acknowledges and agrees that the Designated Agent's duties under this Contract and in the Real Estate Services Act Rule 3-3(a) (to act in the best interests of the Seller), Real Estate Services Act Rule 3-3(f) (to disclose all known material information to the Seller) and the Real Estate Services Act Rule 3-3(i) (to take reasonable steps to avoid any conflict of interest) are hereby modified, from and after the date that the Seller executed the Consent Agreement, to enable the Listing Brokerage and the Designated Agent to continue their representation of such buyer and the Seller further acknowledges and agrees that the continued representation of such buyer will not constitute any breach of duty to the Seller by either the Listing Brokerage or the Designated Agent under the Real Estate Services Act Rule 3-3 or otherwise, including, without limitation, any breach of fiduciary duty, or any breach of a common law agent's duty of loyalty or contractual or statutory duty.

13. COLLECTION, USE AND DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION:

14. TERMINATION: The Listing Brokerage and the Seller agree that:

INITIALS

To help you sell, buy or lease real estate, REALTORS®, brokerages and real estate boards need to collect, use and disclose some of your personal information. This brochure provides you with information about, and obtains your consent to, such information handling practices.

DEFINITIONS

Personal Information means any identifiable information about you, including your name, address, phone number, financial information and may include information about your property (such as listing and selling price, lease rate, listing term, etc.).

REALTOR® means a member of a real estate board, and REALTORS® are also typically licensed under the Real Estate Services Act. Brokerage refers to the real estate company where your REALTOR® is licensed. The boards are the real estate boards of which the brokerage and the REALTOR® are members. The Multiple Listing Service® (MLS®) System comprises a computerized database of real estate listings and sales, operated by the boards in conjunction with The Canadian Real Estate Association.

How is my personal information collected?

Most personal information will be collected directly from you through the contracts and other documents you fill out (e.g., Multiple Listing Contract, Contract of Purchase and Sale, Offer to Lease, seller's Property Disclosure Statement) and through discussions you have with your REALTOR®. Some information may be collected from other sources such as government departments and agencies (e.g., Land Title Offices, BC Assessment), financial institutions and mortgage brokers.

To whom may my personal information be disclosed?

Your information may be disclosed to (or may be accessible by) the boards and their staff and members, other REALTORS® and their clients, government departments and agencies, financial institutions, legal advisors, service providers, the British Columbia Real Estate Association, the Real Estate Council of British Columbia, The Canadian Real Estate Association and members of the public, for the purposes described below.

Not all of your information will be accessible to each of the above-mentioned entities. For example, once the listing term has ended, the general public will not have access to your information, unless it is otherwise available through public registries (e.g., Land Title Offices, BC Assessment).

Why is my personal information collected, used and disclosed?

Your personal information may be collected, used and disclosed for some or all of the following purposes:

- To allow members of real estate boards (including REALTORS® and appraisers) to appraise your property.
- To list/market your property on the MLS® System.
- To market your property through any other media (both print and electronic).
- To help you locate a suitable property to buy or lease.
- To facilitate the purchase and sale or lease transaction (by cooperating with financial institutions, legal advisors and government departments and agencies).
- To allow the boards (including REALTORS®) to compile current and historical statistics on sales and property prices and lease rates, and to conduct comparative market analyses. Information about your property will be retained in the MLS® System for these purposes after your property has sold or leased or your listing has expired (if you are a seller/landlord) and after you have purchased or leased your property (if you are a buyer/tenant).

- To enforce codes of professional conduct and ethics for REALTORS® (by cooperating with real estate boards, the British Columbia Real Estate Association, the Real Estate Council of British Columbia, The Canadian Real Estate Association and other regulatory bodies).
- To comply with legal requirements and to act pursuant to legal authorizations.

The above-mentioned collections, uses and disclosures are a necessary part of your relationship with your REALTOR®.

Will my personal information be collected, used and disclosed for any other purposes?

Your personal information may also be collected, used and disclosed for the following additional purposes:

- Your REALTOR® may communicate with you in future to determine whether you require additional real estate services.
- Your REALTOR® may communicate with you to provide information about other products or services that may interest you.
- Other REALTORS® may communicate with you to determine whether you require additional real estate services.
- The boards, REALTORS® and survey firms on their behalf, may communicate with you to determine if you wish to participate in surveys.

These additional purposes are optional. If you do not want your personal information used or disclosed for any of these purposes, please contact your REALTOR® or your REALTOR'S® board's privacy officer.

Contact information for all BC real estate boards can be found at the British Columbia Real Estate Association website: www.bcrea.bc.ca or telephone 604.683.7702.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT RESIDENTIAL

If this disclosure statement is being used for bare land strata, use the Property Disclosure Statement – Strata Properties along with this form.

THIS INFORMATION IS INCLUDED FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF THE PARTIES ONLY. IT DOES NOT FORM PART OF THE PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT.

EFFECT OF THE PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT:

The property disclosure statement will not form part of the Contract of Purchase and Sale unless so agreed by the buyer and the seller. This can be accomplished by inserting the following wording in the Contract of Purchase and Sale:

“The attached Property Disclosure Statement dated _____ yr. _____ is incorporated into and forms part of this contract.”

ANSWERS MUST BE COMPLETE AND ACCURATE:

The property disclosure statement is designed, in part, to protect the seller by establishing that all relevant information concerning the premises has been provided to the buyer. It is important that the seller not answer “do not know” or “does not apply” if, in fact, the seller knows the answer. An answer must provide all relevant information known to the seller. In deciding what requires disclosure, the seller should consider whether the seller would want the information if the seller was a potential buyer of the premises.

BUYER MUST STILL MAKE THE BUYER’S OWN INQUIRIES:

The buyer must still make the buyer’s own inquiries after receiving the property disclosure statement. Each question and answer must be considered, keeping in mind that the seller’s knowledge of the premises may be incomplete. Additional information can be requested from the seller or from an independent source such as the Municipality or Regional District. The buyer can hire an independent, licensed inspector to examine the premises and/or improvements to determine whether defects exist and to provide an estimate of the cost of repairing problems that have been identified on the property disclosure statement or on an inspection report.

FOUR IMPORTANT CONSIDERATIONS:

1. The seller is legally responsible for the accuracy of the information which appears on the property disclosure statement. Not only must the answers be correct, but they must be complete. The buyer will rely on this information when the buyer contracts to purchase the premises. Even if the property disclosure statement is not incorporated into the Contract of Purchase and Sale, the seller will still be responsible for the accuracy of the information on the property disclosure statement if it caused the buyer to agree to buy the property.
2. The buyer must still make the buyer’s own inquiries concerning the premises in addition to reviewing a property disclosure statement, recognizing that, in some cases, it may not be possible to claim against the seller, if the seller cannot be found or is insolvent.
3. Anyone who is assisting the seller to complete a property disclosure statement should take care to see that the seller understands each question and that the seller’s answer is complete. It is recommended that the seller complete the property disclosure statement in the seller’s own writing to avoid any misunderstanding.
4. If any party to the transaction does not understand the English language, consider obtaining competent translation assistance to avoid any misunderstanding.
